Recommendation 39 (1949)[1]

European Passport

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

Recognising the importance of the question of a European passport, both in itself and by reason of its importance as a gesture,

Recommends to the Committee of Ministers that each Member State ensure that the question of a European passport should be studied by its appropriate government department.

1. (Doc. 112)