COUNCIL OF EUROPE
CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Doc. 71
18 August 1950

Establishment of a European Manpower Board

Motion for a resolution tabled by Mr Maurice EDELMAN and other members of the Assembly

That this Assembly,

taking into account the present need to increases Europe's total production both of raw materials and manufactured goods;

and the desirability of increasing the voluntary mobility of European workers within Europe and its associated territories; bearing in mud the existence of many million unemployed due in part to structural economic reasons, calls on the Committee of Ministers to set up a European Manpower Board, charged with the task of co-ordinating the manpower policies of the various states concerned, in the general interest.
