

Order 4 (1949)

Contacts with I.L.O., U.N., etc.

Parliamentary Assembly

(Doc. 79, I, last paragraph)

The Assembly resolves that, after the first Session of the Consultative Assembly, the Committee on Social Questions shall be instructed to continue its work and the study of questions submitted to it by such practical means as it shall think fit. For this purpose it shall enter into contact with the International Labour Organisation, and other specialised agencies of the United Nations, as well as with other international organisations with which consultation appears to be desirable.
