

Order 87 (1956)¹

Collaboration with the European Information Centre

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

Taking note of Document 329 on the creation of a European Information and Education Centre;

Noting that there exists a European Information Centre at Paris, supported by contributions from Governments;

Considering that the purpose of the proposal could be Fulfilled by close collaboration between the Secretariat-General of the Council of Europe and the European Information Centre,

Instructs the Secretary-General :

- to establish contact with the existing European Information Centre in Paris and arrange for effective measures of collaboration ;
- to inform the Assembly, in due course, of action taken to this end.

1. See also Recommendation 93 and Resolution 94.
See also Recommendation 96.
See also Resolution 97.

