

Order 97 (1956)

Establishment of a general common market

Parliamentary Assembly

The Bureau,

Having regard to the provisions of Order 90 concerning the preparation of a debate on the establishment of a general common market ;

Considering that the report of the Brussels Intergovernmental Committee contains a special chapter on agricultural questions (Part I, Section I, Chapter 4),

Instructs the Committee on Economic Questions, after consultation with the Chairman and Rapporteur of the Special Committee on Agriculture, to incorporate the draft resolution adopted by the Special Committee in the report on the common market which it is required to draw up in agreement with the Committee on General Affairs.

