

Order 110 (1957)¹

Preparation of a report on the situation of refugees

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

Having regard to the number of refugees still remaining in camps in Europe ;

Having regard to the proposals it has made, itself, and to the work done by other international organisations for assistance to refugees ;

Considering it desirable to make a new effort to settle the refugee problem in Europe,

Instructs its Social Committee to present to it a short report, prepared in collaboration with the other international organisations concerned, which will show succinctly :

1. How many refugees are still remaining in camps in Europe and where they are situated ;
2. What is being done to find permanent homes and, where possible, permanent employment for them ;
and
3. What further action, including the granting of UNRWA, is necessary in order to settle the refugee problem in Europe.

1. 22nd Sitting 24th October 1957

