

Order 132 (1958)¹

Uniform law in the matter of international sales

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

Considering that the Common Market has now come into existence and initial steps have been taken to set up a European Economic Association ;

Realising, in consequence, the patent need for a uniform law in the matter of international sales,

Instructs the Legal Committee to consider the question in the light of the work already carried out by the Hague Conference on Private International Law, and the Rome Institute for the Unification of Private Law, and to report to the Assembly in due course.

1. 22nd Sitting
