Appendix – Orders adopted

September 1963

No.	Sitting and date	Directed to :	Subject
218	Standing Committee 27th June	Social Committee	Seminar on international voluntary service The Assembly, Recalling its Recommendation 345 on the employment of volunteers in technical co-operation ; Aware of the role which non-governmental organisations can play in this field, Instructs the Social Committee : • to examine the conclusions of the Seminar on International Voluntary Service convened by the President of the Assembly and held in Strasbourg from 1st to 4th July 1963 ; • to consider what practical action might be taken by the Assembly on these conclusions.
219	Standing Committee 27th June	Committee on Agriculture	European fisheries The Assembly, Recalling its study of the problems of European fisheries whose conclusions are embodied in its Recommendation 198 (1959) and its Resolution 200 (1961) ; Noting that on the proposal of the United Kingdom Government it has been decided to call a fisheries conference of the countries of Western Europe in the autumn of 1963, to be attended by the member countries of EFTA and of the European Economic Community ; Considering that the proposed conference presents a special interest for the Council of Europe because of the importance and urgency of the problems to be dealt with, such as the fixing of the limits of territorial waters and fishing rights and the organising of European markets for fishery products, and also because the conference will be attended by representatives of most Council of Europe member countries, Instructs its Committee on Agriculture urgently to reconsider the problem of European fisheries on the basis of its previous studies and in the light of new developments and to submit a report on the problem to the Consultative Assembly at the September part-Session, notably with a view to enabling the Assembly to offer its support to the proposed fisheries conference of the countries of Western Europe.
220	11th Sitting 19th September	Economic Committee	Nuclear energy The Assembly instructs the Economic Committee to continue its work on European energy problems focussing its attention on nuclear energy with particular reference : 1. to the part that nuclear energy is likely to play in the longer term in meeting the energy needs of Western Europe as a whole, and 2. to the organisation of research into and development of nuclear energy in Western Europe, and to report further to the Assembly on the question in due course.
221	11th Sitting 19th September	Social Committee	European Conference on Air Pollution The Assembly instructs the Social Committee to follow the preparatory work for the European Conference on Air Pollution, which was decided upon by the Committee of Ministers on the initiative of the Assembly (Recommendation 290) and will be held in Strasbourg from 20th to 26th May 1964, and to consult the appropriate committees, particularly the Economic, Agricultural and Legal Committees, on the various problems appearing on the agenda of that Conference.
