

Order 287 (1969)

Responsibility of local authorities in the preservation and rehabilitation of ancient buildings and historical or artistic sites

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

1. Having noted the report on the responsibility of local authorities in the preservation and rehabilitation of ancient buildings and historical or artistic sites ;
2. Instructs its Committee on Regional Planning and Local Authorities to discuss with the European Conference of Local Authorities the means of implementing, in particular by organising a Symposium of those responsible for European historic towns :
an information campaign among local communities concerning their particular responsibilities for an active policy of preservation and enhancement of ancient buildings and historic or artistic sites, special co-operation among the historic towns of Europe ;
3. Instructs its Committee on Culture and Education and its Committee on Regional Planning and Local Authorities to investigate all means for strengthening co-operation between European national, regional and local public authorities and non-governmental organisations, particularly "Europa Nostra".

