

Order 444 (1989)¹

Future developments regarding the treatment of embryos and foetuses and regarding bio-ethics in general

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

1. Referring to its Recommendations 934 (1982) and 1046 (1986), its Order No. 432 (1986) and its Recommendation 1100 \(1989\),
2. Instructs its competent committees - that is, the Social, Health and Family Affairs Committee, the Legal Affairs Committee and the Committee on Science and Technology - to follow closely future developments regarding the treatment of embryos and foetuses and regarding bio-ethics in general, particularly in relation to the intergovernmental work of the Council of Europe, and to report to the Assembly in due course.

1. Assembly debate on 2 February 1989 (24th Sitting) (see Doc. 6006, motion for an order). Text adopted by the Assembly on 2 February 1989 (24th Sitting).

