

Recommendation 35 (1949)

Multilateral Agreement on Social Legislation

Parliamentary Assembly

(Doc. 79, Section 1, § 3)

The Assembly recommends to Member States that they should be guided by action already taken through bilateral or regional agreements in order to prepare a multilateral agreement which would make their own social legislation completely applicable to the nationals of other countries.

