

Recommendation 734 (1974)¹

Situation in Cyprus and in the Eastern Mediterranean area

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

1. Recalling its Resolution 573 ;
2. Believing that member governments have an urgent duty, in the light of the political ideals enshrined in the Statute, to make a collective contribution to the solution of the Cyprus problem,
3. Recommends that the Committee of Ministers :
 - a. include this question as well as the situation in Greece in the agenda of its next session ;
 - b. make use of the proposal concerning the procedure to follow in case of crises, submitted by the President of the Parliamentary Assembly, Mr Vedovato, during the meeting of the Joint Committee in January 1974, and facilitate a meeting of the Joint Committee at Ministers' level as soon as possible in order to examine the problems created by the recent Cyprus conflict ;
4. Recommends that the Committee of Ministers invite the member governments, in the light of Resolution (54) 16 of the Committee of Ministers, to keep the Secretary General informed of initiatives they take in other international organisations on matters of direct concern to the Council of Europe.

1. Text adopted by the Standing Committee acting on behalf of the Assembly, on 29 July 1974. See Doc. 3464, report of the Political Affairs Committee.
