

Recommendation 1107 (1989)<sup>1</sup>

Future role of the European Social Charter

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

1. Having regard to its Resolution 915 \(1989\) on the future role of the European Social Charter ;
2. Welcoming the political Declaration of the Committee of Ministers of 5 May 1989 on the future role of the Council of Europe in European construction ;
3. Mindful that this declaration refers specifically to the Social Charter as an instrument of dialogue and rapprochement in regard not only to member countries but also to the countries of Eastern Europe,
4. Recommends that the Committee of Ministers propose to the Presidents of the Council and Commission of the European Communities that the future of the Council of Europe's Social Charter in relation to the protection of fundamental social rights within the Communities' framework be on the agenda of the first quadripartite meeting for improved co-operation between the Council of Europe and the European Communities, as foreseen in the political declaration.
