

Resolution 441 (1970)¹

Relations between the Council of Europe and Latin America

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

1. Recalling the resolutions and recommendations adopted since 1967, and the declarations made by the delegations of the Latin-American Parliament and the Council of Europe in 1968 and 1969, on the subject of relations between Europe and Latin America ;
2. Approving of the spirit and aims of the steps taken by the Council of Europe to develop cooperation between our countries and communities, in particular the initiatives aimed at furthering the cultural, economic and social advancement of the peoples, and the strengthening of their ties within the framework of the United Nations ;
3. Noting that the parliamentary meetings which have taken place in Strasbourg and Bogota between European and Latin-American representatives have thrown light on the fundamental problems with which the countries of Latin America have to contend on the road towards development and democratic progress ;
4. Convinced that the Council of Europe's mission is to guide the work of international co-operation along lines of mutual support and human advancement ;
5. Believing that the efforts undertaken should be pursued and defined with the aim of arriving rapidly at practical results,
6. Requests the Political Affairs Committee and other competent committees to consider and study any projects in the cultural, technical, economic, legal and political fields which may strengthen permanent cooperation between Europe and Latin America ;
7. Asks that, when a Round Table to prepare the next debate on development aid is organised, a delegation from the Latin-American Parliament should be invited to attend.

1. Assembly debate on 18 April 1970 (2nd Sitting) (see Doc. 2749, report of the Political Affairs Committee). Text adopted by the Assembly on 18 April 1970 (2nd Sitting).
