

Resolution 657 (1977)¹

Situation in Cyprus

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

1. Referring to its Recommendation 759 \(1975\) and Resolution 615 \(1976\), on the situation in Cyprus ;
2. Deeply concerned by the political deadlock in the intercommunal negotiations ;
3. Being aware of its political responsibilities, and realising that every effort must be made to contribute to a just and lasting settlement of the Cyprus crisis,
4. Appeals, following the parliamentary elections of 5 June 1977 in Turkey, to the parties directly concerned actively to facilitate and support the resumption of intercommunal talks under the auspices of the Secretary General of the United Nations with the aim of reaching a settlement freely negotiated between the Greek-Cypriot and Turkish-Cypriot communities
5. Instructs the Political Affairs Committee to report on the latest political developments of the Cyprus question on the basis of information gathered from the parties directly concerned in Ankara, Athens and Nicosia.

1. See Doc. 4003, report of the Political Affairs Committee. Text adopted by the Standing Committee, acting on behalf of the Assembly, on 8 July 1977
