

Recommendation 1481 (2000)¹

Situation in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia

Parliamentary Assembly

1. The Assembly, referring to its Resolution 1230 \(2000\) on the situation in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, recommends that the Committee of Ministers:

- 1.1. invite member states to provide the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia with immediate and massive humanitarian assistance, and urge them to contribute to the stabilisation of the situation there including assistance with strengthening the democratically accountable role of the police and the credible independence of the judiciary;
- 1.2. open a Council of Europe office in Belgrade as soon as possible and redefine the Council's presence in Montenegro and Kosovo;
- 1.3. adapt its own programme for stability in Southeast Europe to reflect the new situation in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia within the framework of the Stability Pact;
- 1.4. send a representative to the European Union Balkan Summit in Zagreb on 24 November 2000.

1. See Doc. 8889, report of the Political Affairs Committee, rapporteur: Mr Frey. Text adopted by the Standing Committee, acting on behalf of the Assembly, on 9 November 2000.
