Parliamentary Assembly

1. The Assembly refers to its Resolution 1315 \(2003\) and Recommendation 1593 \(2003\) concerning the evaluation of the prospects of a political solution to the conflict in the Chechen Republic.
2. It requests that the Political Affairs Committee, the Committee on Legal Affairs and Human and Rights and the Committee on Migration, Refugees and Demography, together with their rapporteurs, on its behalf, maintain their direct concern and active involvement in the issues surrounding the future of the Chechen Republic. In particular, it requests that they consider ways in which they can assist in encouraging an effective European and international humanitarian response and in providing a forum for wider dialogue towards a political solution to the conflict.
3. The Assembly instructs its Committee on Legal Affairs and Human Rights to present to it, at its next part-session, a report on the human rights situation in the Chechen Republic. This report should be based on information made available by the competent authorities, international organisations, NGOs and journalists, and should, inter alia, treat individual cases of particular concern.

1. Assembly debate on 29 January 2003 (5th Sitting) (see Doc. 9687, of the Political Affairs Committee, rapporteur: Lord Judd). Text adopted by the Assembly on 29 January 2003 (5th Sitting).
