COUNCIL OF EUROPE
CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Doc. 12993
28 June 2012

The autonomy of churches and religious communities

Written declaration No. 530

This written declaration does not reflect the position of the Assembly; only of those members that have signed it. It will not be considered further by the Assembly.

Considering that the autonomous existence of churches and religious communities is indispensable for pluralism in a democratic society,

Considering

– the Charter of the United Nations,

– the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (Article 18),

– the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (Article 18),

– the Declaration on the Elimination of All Forms of Intolerance and of Discrimination Based on Religion or Belief (Article 6),

– the Helsinki Final Act (Article VII),

– the European Convention on Human Rights (Article 9) and the well-established case-law of the European Court of Human Rights,

– the Directive 78/2000/EC of 27 November 2000 (Article 4),

– the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union (Article 10),

– the European Union Council Resolution of 16 November 2009,

The undersigned, members of the Parliamentary Assembly,

– reaffirm the utmost importance of the right to freedom of religion of churches and religious communities, implying the respect of the following principles: distinction between State and churches, doctrinal and institutional autonomy of the churches and religious communities, neutrality and impartiality of the State on religious matters;

– are concerned by the judgement of the 3rd Section of the European Court of Human Rights, Sindicatul Pastorul cel Bun v. Romania, which departs from the well-established case-law of the Court and has wide-ranging implications.
