National security and access to information

Amendment¹ No. 3

tabled by the Committee on Culture, Science, Education and Media

In the draft resolution, after paragraph 3, insert the following paragraph:

"Recalling the Siracusa Principles on the Limitation and Derogation Provisions in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the Assembly strongly confirms that the systematic violation of human rights undermines true national security and may jeopardise international peace and security. A State responsible for such violation shall not invoke national security as a justification."
