Missing persons from Europe's conflicts: the long road to finding humanitarian answers

Amendment¹ No. 3

tabled by the Committee on Migration, Refugees and Displaced Persons

In the draft resolution, paragraph 7.2.1, replace the words "right to know" by the following words:

"right to an effective investigation and to know the truth".

Explanatory note

Concerning the right to an effective investigation and to know the truth, the United Nations Human Rights Commission stated that the international community should "endeavour to recognise the right of victims of gross violations of human rights, and their families, and society as a whole to know the truth to the fullest extent practicable".
