2. Description of the procedure by which the candidates were selected

By letter dated 19 December 2012 a request was submitted to the Danish Government by the Secretary General of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe for the submission of a list of three candidates for the position as judge to the European Court of Human Rights in respect of Denmark. The Danish Government was requested to send the list of candidates and their detailed curricula vitae as well as a description of the procedure by which the candidates were selected no later than 12 November 2013.

By letter dated 9 January 2013 a request was submitted to the Danish Government by the Chair of the Advisory Panel of Experts on Candidates for election as Judge to the European Court of Human Rights for the submission of the names and curricula vitae of the candidates included by the Government in the list of candidates for election as judge. The Government was requested to provide the information to the Panel no later than 2 October 2013.

In March 2013 an independent standing committee of five members was appointed by the Minister of Justice upon nomination from the President of the Supreme Court (nomination of the chairman of the Committee), the Presidents of the High Courts, the Council of the Danish Bar and Law Society, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the Ministry of Justice respectively.

The members of the Committee are the following:

Mr Poul Søgaard, Supreme Court Judge (chairman of the committee)

Ms Marie S. Mikkelsen, Judge at the High Court of Western Denmark

Mr Jens Rostock-Jensen, Attorney, Member of the Council of the Danish Bar and Law Society

Mr Claus Grube, former Permanent Secretary of State for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (now Denmark's Ambassador to the United Kingdom)

Ms Anne Kristine Axelsson, Permanent Secretary of State for the Ministry of Justice

The Committee's task is to evaluate the qualifications and eligibility of applicants to the positions as Danish judge at the European Court of Human Rights, Danish judge at the Court of Justice of the European Union, Danish judge at the General Court of the European Union, and Danish Advocate General at the Court of Justice of the European Union. On the basis of this evaluation, the Committee proposes the best candidates to the Government. The Ministry of Justice serves as the secretariat of the Committee.

On 3 May 2013, a notice for the position of judge at the European Court of Human Rights was published in Djøfbladet, a biweekly periodical issued to the members of DJØF (a Danish union representing approximately 80 000 people working within the field of law, business economics and political and social sciences) and placed on two major websites for vacant positions in Denmark (www.jobunivers.dk, www.jobnet.dk), as well as on the websites of the Ministry of Justice and the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The notice included information on the requirements for qualification as judge at the European Court of Human Rights, including linguistic competences, as well as relevant information about the application process. In the notice, persons who wished to be nominated as candidates for the position as judge at the European Court of Human Rights were invited to submit to the Ministry of Justice their applications no later than 3 June 2013. Applicants were invited to send their applications by letter or to upload them electronically.

On 26 June 2013, the Committee decided that it had not received enough applications for the purpose of doing a proper evaluation and therefore the Committee decided to re-publish the notice. The notice was published in an electronic newsletter to all the members of DJØF and on the above-mentioned websites. The new deadline for submitting applications was set at 13 August 2013.

In total, seven applications were received within the deadline. On 19 August 2013, the Committee assessed whether the applicants met the eligibility requirements for nomination as candidates for the position as judge at the European Court of Human Rights in accordance with Article 21 of the European Convention on Human Rights as well as the qualifications listed in i.a. the Guidelines of the Committee of Ministers on the selection of candidates for the post of judge at the European Court of Human Rights (CM(2012)40 of 29 March 2012) and in Recommendation 1649 \(2004\) from the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe.

The Committee summoned five out of seven applicants to interviews on 29 August 2013. On that basis, and after assessing the qualifications of the applicants, the Committee proposed the three above-mentioned candidates to the Government.

On 11 September 2013, the Danish Government accepted the Committee's nominations.

On 23 September 2013, the Danish Government transmitted the names and the English versions of the curriculum vitae of the three candidates to the Advisory Panel of Experts on Candidates for election as Judge to the European Court of Human Rights. The French translations of the curricula vitae were sent to the Advisory Panel on 9 October 2013.

By letter of 16 October 2013, the Advisory Panel informed the Danish Government that the Panel had examined the curricula vitae of the three candidates and that the three candidates were found to meet the requirements of Article 21.1 of the European Convention on Human Rights.
