Recent developments in Ukraine: threats to the functioning of democratic institutions

Amendment¹ No. 22

In the draft resolution, paragraph 1, replace the words "the increasingly hard-handed approach of the authorities, including the so-called anti-terrorist action to break up the Euromaidan protests by force, contrary to all advice given by national and international interlocutors, including by the Assembly in its Resolution 1974 (2014) on the functioning of democratic institutions in Ukraine" with the following words:

"the interference of the EU and the US into the internal affairs of Ukraine, their support of anti-government forces which acted beyond the legal framework".
