Recent developments in Ukraine: threats to the functioning of democratic institutions

Amendment¹ No. 44

In the draft resolution, at the end of paragraph 16, add the following sentence:

"Therefore it calls upon member States to facilitate redress for the injuries sustained by Ukraine due to the unlawful annexation of Crimea through effective cooperation with the Ukrainian authorities on the investigation of the circumstances of human rights violations which occurred on the territory of the Crimean peninsula and a speedy response to their requests, as well as through mutual recognition of the courts' decisions."
