

Doc. 13520

03 June 2014

Report by the Commissioner for Human Rights following his visit to Denmark

Reply to Written question¹: Written question No. 659 (Doc. 13471)
Committee of Ministers

1. The Committee of Ministers recalls that the Commissioner for Human Rights is an independent institution and the Committee of Ministers does not intervene in the drafting of his reports. The Commissioner publishes his reports on his webpage along with the comments received from the respective national authorities, thus allowing everyone to form their own opinion in a transparent manner.

1. Adopted at the 1200th meeting of the Ministers' Deputies (28 May 2014).
