Information on national selection procedure for the position of a judge of the European Court of Human Rights

In the Slovak Republic the procedure of selection of the candidates for the position of the judge of the European Court of Human Rights (hereinafter “the ECHR”) is regulated in detail by law which meets required international standards and, in particular criteria enshrined in Article 21 of the European Convention on Human Rights (hereinafter “the Convention”).

According to Article 141a § 4 d) of the Constitution of the Slovak Republic, it is under the authority of the Judicial Council of the Slovak Republic (hereinafter “the Judicial Council”) to submit to the Government of the Slovak Republic proposals of candidates for judges who should act in respect of the Slovak Republic in international judicial bodies.

Respecting this provision of the Constitution of the Slovak Republic, when endorsing the selection of the candidates, the Government of the Slovak Republic may act only upon proposal submitted to it by the Judicial Council.

It is thus the Judicial Council which is vested by the Constitution with the functions of selecting the aforementioned candidates. The Judicial Council is the judiciary's highest body, independent from the legislative and executive power. This body is consisted of 18 members, almost all of them are serving judges.

When selecting candidates for the position of the judge at the ECHR in current case, the Judicial Council performed its duties in accordance with national procedure provided for in Section 27g of the Act 185/2002 Coll. on the Judicial Council of the Slovak Republic as amended (hereinafter the “Act on Judicial Council”).

Section 27g § 1 of the Act on Judicial Council stipulates that the nomination for the election of the candidate for the position of a judge, who should act in respect of the Slovak Republic in international judicial bodies, can be submitted to the Judicial Council by:

- a. a member of the Judicial Council,
- b. the Minister of Justice of the Slovak Republic,
- c. professional organisation of judges,
- d. other professional organisation of lawyers.

Requirements for the candidates for the position of the judge of the Slovak Republic in international judicial bodies are as follows:

- a. acquired legal education by completion of a MA course at the law faculty of a university in the Slovak Republic, or possesses recognised or nostrified document of law education obtained by completion of studies of the same level at foreign university,
- b. is of integrity; is probably a credible personality in the field of law and his/her moral qualities give a guarantee that he/she will dully perform his/her mandate.

- c. has permanent residence in the territory of the Slovak Republic,
- d. has full legal capacity and health conditions which allow him/her to perform the judicial mandate,
- e. passed the judicial professional exam, prosecutor's exam, bar exam or notary exam and has at least 5 years of legal practise.

Nomination for a judge, who should act in respect of the Slovak Republic in international judicial body, shall be submitted to the Judicial Council. For the nomination to be approved it has to obtain majority of votes of all Judicial Council members in secret ballot.

Following the vote, the Judicial Council adopted the Resolution No. 459 of 13 April 2015 approving the following candidates for the position of judge at the ECHR: Ms Zuzana Dlugošová, Mr Ladislav Duditš, and Ms Alena Poláčková.

The Judicial Council subsequently submitted nominations for a judge of the ECHR to the Government of the Slovak Republic, which endorsed the proposed list of candidates (Resolution No. 206 of 22 April 2015).

IV. Activities and experience in the field of human rights

My personal experience in the field of human rights is connected with the profession of judge which covers the entirety of my professional career to date. The practical decision making process of a judge includes inter alia the application of the international treaties which bind the Slovak Republic. The European Convention on Human Rights is an international treaty which is directly applicable in the Slovak legal system and takes precedence over national law. Every judge is obliged to respect and protect the rights stemming from the provisions of the ECHR. As a judge performing my duties at the appeal court in civil cases I am familiar with the applicable case law of the Court in particular with regard to right to a fair trial which should be protected in every step of judicial proceedings. Besides this we often consider the case law of the Court concerning the right to respect of private and family life, freedom of expression, the prohibition of discrimination and the protection of property.
