30 September 2015

Abuse of pretrial detention in States Parties to the European Convention on Human Rights

Amendment¹ No. 12

In the draft resolution, paragraph 11.5, replace the words "in Georgia", with the following words:

"in cases of UNM leaders Mr Ugulava and Mr Akhalaia in Georgia. In the case of Mr Ugulava, the Constitutional Court of Georgia ruled his 15 month pre-trial detention term was anti-constitutional and illegal".

Explanatory note

Mr Ugulava, UMN leader, was re-arrested 24 hours after his release after one of the cases against him was accelerated, despite the constitutional court ruling that his extended pre-trial detention was illegal. The chairman of the European Parliament Foreign Affairs Committee called this a "violation of the EU-Georgia Association Agreement".
