1. List and curricula vitae of candidates submitted by the Government of Hungary

Letter from Ms Ágnes Kertész, Ambassador of Hungary to the Council of Europe, to Mr Wojciech Sawicki, Secretary General of the Parliamentary Assembly, dated 15 December 2016.

With reference to your letter dated 18 October 2016, I am pleased to submit to you the names and curricula vitae of the Hungarian candidates for the post of judge to the European Court of Human Rights. Please find also attached a description of the selection procedure of the candidates.

Information on national selection procedure for the position of a judge of the European Court of Human Rights

The Government of Hungary issued a call for applications for the position of Hungarian judge opening as of 1 February 2017 at the European Court of Human Rights ("Court"). The call for applications was published on 13 September 2016 in No. 44 of the 2016 Official Gazette (Notifications) (Hivatalos Értesítő). Deadline for the submission of the applications was 27 September 2016. In conformity with the Council of Europe's standards, at national level candidates were selected upon the nomination of a professional committee. The Ministry of Justice set up an Applications Evaluation Committee, consisting of distinguished representatives of the national legal professionals, for the evaluation of the applications submitted for the position of Hungarian judge, for determining the applicants' professional excellence and suitability.

Nineteen applications were received within the time limit open for the submission of the applications.

The members of the Applications Evaluation Committee were as follows:

Dr Tamás Sulyok, vice-president of the Constitutional Court exercising presidential powers, president of the Applications Evaluation Committee,

Dr János Bánáti, president of the Hungarian Bar Association, member of the Applications Evaluation Committee,

Dr Lajos Makai, president of the Pécs Court of Appeal, president of the Association of Hungarian Judges, member of the Applications Evaluation Committee,

Dr Réka Somssich, vice-dean of Eötvös Loránd University, Faculty of Law, member of the Applications Evaluation Committee, Dr Mariann Vízkelety, Ministry of Justice secretary of state responsible for justice relations, member of the Applications Evaluation Committee.

The members of the Evaluation Committee held a first meeting on 4 October 2016, on which occasion they reviewed the submitted applications and agreed on a detailed evaluation agenda in light of the number of the submitted applications. The members of the Evaluation Committee evaluated the applications individually. The Evaluation Committee determined the evaluation criteria by paying regard to the mandatory eligibility criteria specified in the call for applications. The Evaluation Committee first had to ascertain whether the applicants complied with the mandatory eligibility criteria specified in the call for applications as follows:

	Criteria	Manner of certification
1.	Hungarian nationality	copy of the identity card
2.	No criminal record	certificate of no criminal record (where requested within the time limit, the applicant is to receive it in the next 5 working days, and may submit it when it is thus received)
3.	Juris Doctor degree	copy of the diploma
4.	birth on 1 August 1951 or at a later date	copy of the identity card
5.	high moral character	is assessed individually by the members of the Evaluation Committee in the light of the candidate's career, professional recognition and reputation
6.	qualifications required for appointment to high judicial office or jurisconsults of recognised competence	bar exam and/or academic degree and extensive professional expertise or research work in the field of national and international law

7.	active knowledge of either English or French and at least a passive knowledge of the other language	language exam certificate or certified foreign studies or foreign work experience or publications in these foreign languages and/or a statement of intent to intensively learn the other language
8.	willingness to move to live in Strasbourg in case of election	statement to that effect from the candidate
9.	submission of the application within the time limit	date of receipt of the e-mail sent to the e-mail address given in the call of applications

From among the applicants having met the eligibility criteria preference was given to applicants who:

had familiarity with both national law and international public law and had law-application or academic experience in the field of human rights;

had active, high-level knowledge of both official languages of the Council of Europe;

had experience as a judge/law-applier

The Evaluation Committee's task was to check compliance with the eligibility criteria specified in the call for applications and to assess the applicants' professional expertise and suitability in light of the submitted application and the applicant's career and professional recognition. In selecting the candidates, the Evaluation Committee relied solely on professional aspects. As to the candidates' gender, the Hungarian Government has paid due regard to the Council of Europe's Recommendation in the nomination procedure.

The Evaluation Committee established that one application was invalid and one applicant had withdrawn his application.

After a detailed evaluation of the submitted written documents, the Evaluation Committee heard in person all 17 applicants whose applications it had found to be worthy for adjudication.

On 17 October 2016 Dr Tamás Sulyok, president of the Applications Evaluation Committee, informed, in writing, the Minister of Justice about the decision of the Evaluation Committee. The Evaluation Committee provided detailed evaluations on the written application documents submitted by the applicants and on the result of the oral hearing. In these proceedings the Evaluation Committee unanimously decided that from the very high-quality applications the application of Dr Péter Paczolay should be ranked in first place and the applications of Dr Krisztina Füzi-Rozsnyai, Dr Balázs Tibor Schanda and Dr Pál Sonnevend, who achieved identical results, should be ranked in second place.

The Government, taking also into account the gender balance aspect, decided about the three persons, as required by the Convention, whose names are included in the list (Dr Krisztina Füzi-Rozsnyai, Dr Péter Paczolay, and Dr Balázs Tibor Schanda) on the basis of the proposal of the Minister of Justice.

Mr Schanda, after being elected a member of the Hungarian Constitutional Court on 22 November 2016 has decided to withdraw his candidature as a judge to the European Court of Human Rights. After the withdrawal of Mr Schanda the Hungarian Government decided to nominate Dr Pál Sonnevend. Mr Sonnevend as mentioned above has received identical results as Mr Schanda, thus no new selection procedure was needed for his nomination.

On the basis of the above, please proceed with the hearing of the candidates proposed by the Hungarian Government in the view of enabling the Parliamentary Assembly of 12 January 2017 to elect the forthcoming Hungarian judge of the European Council.
