

Doc. 14216
24 January 2017

Reinforcing social dialogue as an instrument for stability and decreasing social and economic inequalities

Amendment¹ No. 16

In the draft resolution, at the end of paragraph 5.4, insert the following words:

"However, there can be no call for a strike and/or a (public) demonstration without taking responsibility and accepting accountability for it. Violence and public disruption should be avoided at all times, but, if it occurs, a trade union is legally and morally responsible for the violence caused by its members in its name."
