Integration of refugees in times of critical pressure: learning from recent experience and examples of best practice

Amendment¹ No. 25

tabled by the Committee on Equality and Non-Discrimination

In the draft resolution, after paragraph 6.7.3, insert the following paragraph:

"fully recognising the key role of women for the successful integration of migrant families and ensuring that the specific needs of migrant women are duly taken into account in terms of access to sexual and reproductive health, vocational and linguistic training, as well as independent access to education, while providing the necessary resources and training staff;"
