Turkish violations against the Istanbul Pride 2017

Written declaration No. 636

This written declaration does not reflect the position of the Assembly; only of those members that have signed it. It will not be considered further by the Assembly.

The Turkish authorities ban of and violations against the Istanbul Pride 2017 are a clear violation of Turkey's obligations to the Council of Europe. The ban had no justification and served as a violation of the freedom of assembly. We condemn the attack against the peaceful manifestations that included at least 24 arrests, blocking of streets and the use of rubber bullets.

For years the Pride in Istanbul has been a peaceful and colourful expression in favour of equal rights, but in recent years the Turkish authorities have banned the event. We call on the Turkish authorities to live up to their obligation to secure freedom of speech, freedom of assembly and to secure the rights of LGBT people in Turkey.

We stand in solidarity with the brave people of Istanbul and sympathizers from all over Europe that had the courage to go to the streets in favour of equality and fundamental human rights.
