

Doc. 14401
09 October 2017

The activities of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) in 2016-2017

Amendment¹ No. 4

tabled by the Committee on Social Affairs, Health and Sustainable Development Committee on Social Affairs, Health and Sustainable Development

In the draft resolution, at the end of paragraph 11.1, insert the following words:

", notably by fighting the development of new forms of poverty associated with precarious, low-paid work and imposed part-time contracts".

Explanatory note

Precarious work and underemployment do not guarantee a decent income and they give rise to new forms of poverty. They put a strain on the state budget due to increased demand for social benefits. Public authorities must ensure minimum income security through work.
