

Doc. 14402
10 October 2017

Prosecuting and punishing the crimes against humanity or even possible genocide committed by Daesh

Amendment¹ No. 2

tabled by the Committee on Political Affairs and Democracy

In the draft resolution, after paragraph 6.2.2, insert the following paragraph:

"not prioritising, systematically and exclusively, with regard to the members of Daesh, the application of national anti-terrorist legislation, to the detriment of their universal jurisdiction when examining cases involving the crimes described in the Rome Statute of the ICC;"

1. 2017 - Fourth part-session

