

Doc. 14443
25 January 2018

Jurisdictional immunity of international organisations and rights of their staff

Amendment¹ No. 5

tabled by the Committee on Social Affairs, Health and Sustainable Development

In the draft resolution, after paragraph 6.3, insert the following paragraph:

"ensure that internal redress mechanisms at all levels are independent and impartial, respect the principle of equality of arms and issue reasoned decisions, and that these mechanisms are given the means to operate effectively and without undue interference so that decisions are fair and taken within a reasonable time;"
