

Doc. 14633

04 October 2018

Merabishvili v. Georgia Case

Reply to Written question¹: Written question No. 733 (Doc. 14604)
Committee of Ministers

1. After the judgment was delivered on 28 November 2017, the case Merabishvili v. Georgia was initially examined by the Committee of Ministers at its 1310th meeting (March 2018) (DH). In view of the complex problem that this case raises, the Committee agreed to classify it under the enhanced procedure.
2. The Georgian authorities submitted information in February 2018 on the applicant's situation and in particular the various criminal convictions against him (see DH-DD\(2018\)181). They further provided an action plan in June 2018 (see DH-DD\(2018\)602) on the individual and general measures taken and envisaged. These documents are public.
3. The case is on the order of business of the 1331st meeting (December 2018) (DH) of the Committee of Ministers, at which time it will assess the information sent by the authorities.

1. Adopted at the 1326th meeting of the Ministers' Deputies (3 October 2018).

