Unlimited access to member States, including “grey zones”, by Council of Europe and United Nations human rights monitoring bodies

Amendment¹ No. 5

Ms Tamar CHUGOSHVILI, Georgia, Socialists, Democrats and Greens Group
Ms Eka BESELIA, Georgia, Socialists, Democrats and Greens Group
Ms Nino GOGUADZE, Georgia, European Conservatives Group
Ms Sofio KATSARAVA, Georgia, Socialists, Democrats and Greens Group
Mr Zviad KVATCHANTIRADZE, Georgia, Socialists, Democrats and Greens Group

In the draft resolution, paragraph 4, replace the fourth sentence with the following sentence:

"It calls on the Russian Federation, exercising effective control over the occupied Tskhinvali region/South Ossetia, Georgia to cooperate with the CPT and other international monitoring mechanisms."

Explanatory note

During the last years, none of the international monitoring missions had any access to the Tskhinvali region. Russia's provocative steps aim to destabilize the situation in the region and violate human rights. By granting no access to international actors, Russia intends to hide the dramatic developments on the ground.
