Withdrawing nationality as a measure to combat terrorism: a human rights-compatible approach?

Amendment¹ No. 1

Mr Mart van de VEN, Netherlands, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe
Ms Reina de BRUIJN-WEZEMAN, Netherlands, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe
Mr Konstantin KUHLE, Germany, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe
Ms Gyde JENSEN, Germany, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe
Mr Vincent VAN QUICKENBORNE, Belgium, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe
Mr Hendrik DAEMS, Belgium, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe
Mr Olivier BECHT, France, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe

In the draft resolution, paragraph 6, after the words "First, it may", insert the word "not".

Explanatory note

The amendment clarifies that the report of Ms Strik deals with individuals having one or more nationalities. The current wording that the application of laws on withdrawal of nationality may lead to statelessness, is negative in nature. Adding the word "not" in this sentence confirms that having one nationality is the absolute bare minimum within the context of the resolution.
