1. List and curricula vitae of candidates submitted by the Government of Germany

Letter from Mr Rolf Mafael, Ambassador of Germany to the Council of Europe, to Mr Wojciech Sawicki, Secretary General of the Parliamentary Assembly, dated 14 March 2019.

With reference to your letter, dated 4 June 2018, I am pleased to inform you that the German Federal Government has decided to nominate Mr Thilo Marauhn, Ms Christiane Schmaltz and Ms Anja Seibert-Fohr, in alphabetical order, as candidates for the election as Judge to the European Court of Human Rights.

The Government's decision was taken at a Cabinet session on 30 January 2019.

2. Information on national selection procedure for the position of a judge of the European Court of Human Rights

The procedure for the nomination of candidates has followed the same established practice as in the previous nomination round (2010).

Advertisement to announce the vacancy

The Human Rights Division of the Federal Ministry of Justice and for Consumer Protection, in consultation with the Ministry for Foreign Affairs and the Federal Chancellor's office, drafted a request for applications which stated the necessary requirements for being considered for inclusion in the candidates' list. The requirements took into account the European Convention on Human Rights and the relevant texts passed by the Parliamentary Assembly and the Committee of Ministers, laying stress on relevant experience in the field of Human Rights and linguistic abilities. [...]

The request announcing the possibility of seeking to become the Government's candidates to the office of Judge at the European Court of Human Rights was published in the first week of June 2018 in several major newspapers. It was also published as a press notice on the website of the Federal Ministry of Justice and for Consumer Protection on 2 June 2018. In addition, the request was sent out to the Presidents of all Federal Courts, the justice ministers and senators of the Länder, the German Judges Association, the Federal Chamber of Advocates, the German Advocates Association, the German National Institute for Human Rights and the Forum Human Rights (the national umbrella organisation of NGOs in the field of Human Rights), asking them to nominate suitable candidates or to encourage them to apply. All applications, whether sent in by these organizations or by individual applicants, were treated in exactly the same way.

The deadline for announcing interest in being included in the list of candidates was set at 20 July 2018.

24 persons applied for inclusion in the list of candidates.

Evaluation of the applicants

The Human Rights Division of the Federal Ministry of Justice and for Consumer Protection analysed the applications and checked the information on the qualifications against the requirements set out in the request for applications. On this basis, taking into account the experience and known expertise of applicants in the field of the European Convention and human rights law in general, the applicants were evaluated for inclusion in the list.

Interviews with candidates

Interviews were conducted with the most promising applicants. These took place at the Federal Ministry with the State Secretary Mrs Christiane Wirtz, the Head of the international department, Mrs Almut Wittling-Vogel, and the Director of the Public Law and International Law division of the Federal Ministry, Mr Alfred Bindels. The qualifications of the applicants, including their linguistic abilities and Human Rights experience, and their readiness to be included in the list were ascertained by these interviews.

Decision by the Cabinet

The Federal Minister of Justice and for Consumer Protection, Mrs Katarina Barley, proposed a list to the Federal Cabinet with the names of Mr Thilo Marauhn, Mrs Christiane Schmaltz and Mrs Anja Seibert-Fohr as candidates for the election as Judge to the European Court of Human Rights. The Cabinet approved the list on 30 January 2019 and this decision was published on the same day together with a press release [...]. The unsuccessful applicants were informed about the outcome of the procedure.

- Professor of Public Law, International and Comparative Law, Habilitation, Venia legendi from the University of Heidelberg, 2012

III. Relevant professional activities

a. Description of judicial activities

The Conference of States Parties elected me in 2012 at the seat of the United Nations in New York to serve as a member of the Human Rights Committee. The Committee is the principal legal institution entrusted with overseeing the implementation of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (adopted in 1966, this Covenant is the universal equivalent to the European Convention of Human Rights).

In the course of my mandate at the Human Rights Committee, I participated in the review of more than 500 individual complaints asserting violations of the rights protected under the Covenant. As a rapporteur for a number of significant cases, I helped to shape the Committee's jurisprudence in various areas.

The Committee's individual complaint procedure resembles the procedure of the European Court of Human Rights. My training as a judicial clerk in the 1990s, where I qualified for judicial office, was a great benefit as I performed this quasi-judicial function.

- Member of the UN-Human Rights Committee, 2013-2018
- Vice-Chair of the UN-Human Rights Committee, 2015-2017
- Clerk, Highest State Court, Frankfurt on the Main, 1993-96

b. Description of non-judicial legal activities

As a professor for public law, international law, and human rights law, I combine a comprehensive knowledge of German law with a profound command of comparative and international law, including the European and international human rights regimes. I regularly teach European and international human rights law, including Public International Law, International Dispute Settlement, as well as German Constitutional and Public Law. The domestic public law subjects include coverage of Fundamental and Civil Rights and administrative law.

- Chair in Public Law, International Law and Human Rights Law, University of Heidelberg, Faculty of Law, since 2016

1. Text in bold indicates posts or missions held at present.

- Director of the Institute for Constitutional Law, Constitutional Theory and Philosophy of Law
- Presidium of the United Nations Association of Germany, since 2017
- Director of the Institute for Public Law and European Law, University of Goettingen, 2014-2016
- Chair in International Law and Human Rights Law, University of Goettingen, 2013-2016
- Head of the Minerva Research Section, Max-Planck-Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law, Heidelberg, 2008-2013
- Grant for outstanding researchers by the Max Planck Society for the Advancement of Sciences, 2008
- Visiting professor, University of Cambridge, 2010
- International Law Association- Committee on the International Criminal Court, until 2010

- MPIL-Coordinator of the International Max Planck Research School on Retaliation, Mediation and Punishment, 2007-2009
- Co-editor of the Max Planck Commentaries on WTO Law, 2004-2006
- Senior Research Fellow, Max-Planck-Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law, Heidelberg, 2000-2008
- Advisory board of the Journal "Security and Peace", until present
- Advisory board of the Goettingen Journal of International Law, until present
- Executive board, Expert Roundtable on International Criminal Law, 2005-2013
- Adjunct Professor, MCL Program of Mannheim and Adelaide University, 2003-2008
- Lecturer in International and Comparative Law, Heidelberg University, 2002-2012
- Research Associate, Project on economic and social rights, George Washington University, 1998
- Judge at the International Rounds of the Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, 1998

c. Description of non-legal professional activities

- Academic Founding Committee, International Nuremberg Principles Academy, 2010-2011

In 2010, the German government commissioned me and three academic colleagues to conceptualize and, design plans for the International Nuremberg Principles Academy. This interdisciplinary institution is dedicated to the promotion of international criminal justice and human rights. The Academy develops programming and training that supports the fight against impunity for international crimes.

IV. Activities and experience in the field of human rights

I have more than 20 years' experience in human rights and public law, acquired in three different capacities: as member of the United Nations Human Rights Committee, as legal practitioner, and as a legal academic.

a. United Nations Human Rights Committee:

- Member of the UN- Human Rights Committee, 2013-2018
- Vice-Chair of the UN-Human Rights Committee, 2015-2017
- Co-Rapporteur on Follow-up to Concluding Observations, Human Rights Committee, 2013-2014

During my mandate, I participated in the review of the human rights situation in over 100 States parties, many of which are members of the Council of Europe. In this function, I have gained deep insights into the great variety of domestic legal orders. As a mandated Co-Rapporteur on Follow-up, I reviewed the implementation of our Concluding Observations and prepared the Committee's Follow-up Report.

As an elected Vice-Chair, I presided over several proceedings of the Committee and I participated in steering and decision-making for the Committee. The latter work involved administrative responsibilities, including administrative supervision and budget decision. I also represented the Committee on various occasions, including at the UN level. Finally, I initiated and organised a joint meeting of our Committee with the European Court of Human Rights in July, 2016. At that meeting, Committee Members and Judges of the European Court of Human Rights discussed matters relevant for both human rights jurisdictions.

b. Legal practitioner/counsel

- High Priority Comparative Report on Judicial Administration for the Office of the Chief Justice of South Africa, 2011
- Kyiv Recommendations on Judicial Independence (OSCE), 2010
- Head of the OSCE-MPIL Project on the Independence of the Judiciary, 2008-2010 (cited in Oleksandr Volkov v. Ukraine, no. 21722/11, § 81, ECHR 2013)
- Legal adviser, German delegation to OSCE human dimension conferences, 2003-2005
- Founder of the MPIL Human Rights Roundtable, 2003-2006
- Comparative Study on corporate human rights litigation, commissioned by the Federal Ministry for Economic Co-operation and Development, 2004

For many years, I have been an active legal practitioner, especially through my engagement in several rule of law initiatives. I contributed to a high priority report for the Chief Justice of South Africa that addressed administrative measures to be taken to protect judicial independence.

In co-operation with the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe, I directed a project on the independence of the judiciary that reviewed the judicial systems of OSCE participating states. That OSCE project allowed me to acquaint myself with the broad scope of different legal orders of a great variety of European states, including those of Central and Eastern Europe. The European Court of Human Rights referred to my study in its judgement Volkov v. Ukraine. The OSCE project also led to the Kyiv Recommendations on Judicial Independence in Eastern Europe, South Caucasus and Central Asia. These international standards have become the basis for several domestic rule of law reforms in the region.

c. Legal academic

- Convener of the ECHR-Conference „Judgments of the European Court of Human Rights – Effects and Implementation“ in co-operation with Section President Mark Villiger, 2013
- Convener of the Regional Conference “Judicial Independence in Eastern Europe, South Caucasus and Central Asia: Challenges, Reforms and Way Forward”, in co-operation with the OSCE, Ukraine 23-25 June 2010

In my efforts to render academic work practically relevant for the protection of human rights I have organised, in co-operation with the OSCE and the ECHR respectively, two major international conferences. These programs brought together scholars, judges and practitioners for joint conversations and debate. Several judges of the European Court of Human Rights, including former President Dean Spielmann, participated. They were joined by renowned legal scholars, Supreme Court judges, and practitioners from various Council of Europe member States. I partnered with then-Section President Mark Villiger from the European Court of Human Rights in convening and coordinating that program. In co-operation with the OSCE, I hosted an expert conference in the Ukraine, which discussed challenges and strategies to reinforce judicial independence in Eastern Europe, the South Caucasus, and Central Asia.

In past years, I have been invited regularly for presentations at conferences hosted by the European Court of Human Rights, the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, and the Council of Europe:

- Key note on the occasion of the 40th Anniversary of the creation of the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, “Strengthening co-operation between the three Regional Human Rights Courts” 2018
- Joint Public Conference of the European Court of Human Rights and the Inter-American Court of Human Rights, presentation on “Evidence and the burden of proof in case of gross and systematic human rights violations”, 2018

- Seminar organised for the launching of the work of the Council of Europe, Directorate General Human Rights and Rule of Law, Seminar organised for the launching of the work of the Drafting Group on the place of the European Convention on Human Rights in the European and international legal order (DH-SYSC-II), presentation on “The European Court of Human Rights and the Human Rights Committee”, 2017
- ESIL-ECHR Conference “European Convention on Human Rights and the Crimes of the Past”, presentation “Coping with the Past, Looking to the Future”, 2016
- ECHR Conference “The European Convention on Human Rights and General International Law”, presentation on “Subsequent agreements and practice from an ILC perspective”, 2015

Apart from my work in English and French on the UN Human Rights Committee, I occasionally acted as rapporteur for Spanish-speaking countries (passive knowledge).

IX. In the event that you do not meet the level of language proficiency required for the post of judge in an official language [the second], please confirm your intention to follow intensive language classes of the language concerned prior to, and if need be also at the beginning of, your term of duty if elected a judge on the Court.

Though, by virtue of my function in the Human Rights Committee and my foreign legal education, I meet the level of language proficiency in the official languages of the Council of Europe I am eager to continue immersing myself in both languages.
