1. List and curricula vitae of candidates submitted by the Government of France

Letter from Mr Jean-Baptiste Mattei, Ambassador of France to the Council of Europe, to Mr Wojciech Sawicki, Secretary General of the Parliamentary Assembly, dated 19 September 2019.

On behalf of the French Government, I have the honour to transmit to you the names of the three candidates for the post of judge at the European Court of Human Rights in respect of France.

The names of these candidates are, in alphabetical order, as follows:

- Ms Carole Champalaune, counsellor at the Court of Cassation;
- Mr Tristan Gervais de Lafond, first president of the Court of Appeal of Montpellier;
- Mr Mattias Guyomar, State Councillor.

2. Information on the national selection procedure for the position of a judge of the European Court of Human Rights

The candidate selection procedure put in place by the French authorities for the election of the next French judge at the European Court of Human Rights (the Court) was devised taking into account the guidelines of the Committee of Ministers of 29 March 2012 on the selection of candidates for the post of judge at the Court (CM(2012)40). As the term of office of Mr André Potocki, the current French judge, will end on 21 June 2020, the election of his successor must take place at the beginning of 2020.

An ad hoc Selection Committee tasked with assessing all the applications was set up. It was chaired by Mr Gilbert Guillaume, former President of the International Court of Justice, and comprised Ms Edwige Belliard, honorary member of the Conseil d'État, Ms Geneviève Burdeau, Emeritus Professor of Law, Mr Bruno Cotte, honorary President of the Criminal Affairs Division of the Court of Cassation, and Mr François Alabrune, Director of Legal Affairs at the Ministry for Europe and Foreign Affairs and the French Government Agent before the Court.

In early February 2019, a call for candidates with a detailed job description was published on the intranet websites of the Ministry of Justice, the Ministry of Europe and Foreign Affairs, the Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Higher Education, and on the LinkedIn accounts of the last three of these ministries. The job description included the conditions set out in the Convention and the guidelines of 29 March 2012 to be able to exercise the functions of a judge at the Court. It also indicated the selection procedure which would be followed.

Applications had to be submitted by 27 March 2019.

Out of the eighteen applications submitted to the Selection Committee, one was transmitted after this deadline and therefore rejected. The candidate concerned was informed.

Of the remaining seventeen applications, eight were immediately ruled out as the applicants' profile did not meet the requirements for the position.

The other nine candidates were invited for an interview, lasting approximately 30 minutes, with all members of the Selection Committee. These interviews were held on 13 May 2019 at the Institut de France. The candidates had been invited for an interview on 18 April 2019 by email with a request for a delivery receipt.

The same approach was adopted in the interviews with all the candidates, with the aim of assessing their motivation, their experience and competencies, and their language skills. They were all asked similar questions.

At the end of the interviews, the Committee shortlisted four candidates whose names were submitted to the Government, which chose three of them to be forwarded, for opinion, to the Advisory Panel of Experts on Candidates for Election as Judge to the European Court of Human Rights.
