The Assembly's vision on the strategic priorities for the Council of Europe

Amendment¹ No. 2

In the draft resolution, replace paragraph 12 with the following paragraph:

The Council of Europe that was created after the Victory over Nazism in the Second World War must prioritise achieving genuine equality, inclusion and respect of human dignity. It must continue to champion equality and eliminate discrimination on any grounds, stop manifestations of racism, anti-Semitism, neo-Nazism and xenophobia. It possesses ground-breaking standards and tools to do so. The Organisation's position as a leader in this area globally must be further reinforced.
