REGULATIONS on the organisation and conduct of the national competition for the nomination of candidates to fill the position of Judge at the European Court of Human Rights from the Republic of Moldova

I. General provisions

1. This Regulation lays down the organisation and conduct of the national competition for the nomination of three candidates to be initially proposed to the Expert Advisory Panel on Candidates for Election as Judges to the European Court of Human Rights (hereinafter the ECHR) and, subsequently, Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe for hearings and final election by ballot of the judge at the ECHR, as well as the set of documents submitted by candidates and the conditions for participation in the competition.

2. The purpose of this Regulation is to ensure the selection of candidates in the most transparent and equitable manner and to comply with the provisions of the Resolutions of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe no. 1646 (2009), no. 1366 (2004), amended by resolutions no. 1426 (2005), no. 1627 (2008), no. 1841 (2011), no. 2002 (2014), no. 2278 (2019), Resolution of the Committee of Ministers CM/Res (2010) 26, as amended by CM/Res (2014) 44, as well as taking into account the Guidelines of the Committee of Ministers, adopted on 29 March 2012, by the Memorandum of the Parliamentary Assembly of Council of Europe of May 26, 2020 and the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms.

II. Organisation of the competition

3. The selection of candidates for the position of Judge at the ECHR shall be carried out on the basis of a competition organised by the Committee for the selection of candidates for the position of Judge at the ECHR (hereinafter – the Committee), in accordance with the conditions laid down in this Regulation.

4. The procedure for organising and conducting the competition shall be based on the following principles:

- the competition shall be open, by ensuring the free access for participation in the competition of any person who meets the established conditions;
- the choice shall be done according to merits, by selecting, based on the results obtained, the most competent persons;
- ensuring a balanced representation of men and women;
- ensuring transparency, by making available to all interested parties the information regarding the organisation and conduct of the competition;
- non-discriminatory treatment, based on the application of objective and clearly defined selection criteria, so that any candidate has equal chances.

5. The work of the Committee shall be coordinated by the President and, in his absence, by the Vice-President.

6. The Committee shall have the following tasks:

- verifies the fulfillment by the candidates of the conditions established for the participation in the competition;
- establishes the list of questions for the interview;
- ensures the conduct of the interview;
- evaluates the candidates' answers;
- calculates the average score obtained by each candidate, given by the members of the Committee at the interview;
- selects three candidates with the highest score and publishes the list of candidates on the official website of the Ministry of Justice;
- submits the list of candidates to the Government for approval.

7. The President of the Committee shall perform the following tasks:
 - leads the activity of the Committee;
 - establishes the date, place and time of convening the meetings of the Committee;
 - chairs the meetings of the Committee;
 - signs the minutes of the meetings and the decisions of the Committee;
 - performs other duties in accordance with this Regulation.
8. The members of the Committee shall have the following rights:
 - to take note of the materials submitted to the Committee for examination and participate in their examination;
 - to present their arguments;
 - to propose for consideration at the meeting matters falling within the competence of the Committee;
 - to participate in the adoption of decisions by vote and to express their separate opinion, as the case may be;
 - to enjoy other rights under the conditions of this Regulation.
9. Members of the Committee specializing in linguistics (English and French) shall not assess candidates in accordance with p. 31.
10. The members of the Committee are obliged to:
 - perform their duties in accordance with this Regulation;
 - provide information on the manner and result of the evaluation of the candidate based on the submitted dossier;
 - attend meetings of the Committee.
11. The Secretariat of the Committee shall have the following tasks:
 - receives and registers the applicants' requests;
 - prepares the necessary documents for the meeting;
 - informs the members of the Committee about the date, time and place of the meeting, as well as about the agenda;
 - draws up the minutes of the meetings and other internal acts of the Committee;
 - publishes all the information provided by this Regulation.
12. The work of voting members of the Committee, except the linguists, shall not be remunerated. The members of the Committee specializing in linguistics are remunerated with an allowance in the amount of 5% of the average monthly salary per economy, as forecast and approved annually by the Government, for the evaluation of each candidate at the interview stage. Their calculation and remuneration shall be carried out by the Ministry of Justice on account of and within the limits of the allocated budget.
13. Communication with the Committee shall take place electronically.
14. Decisions of the Committee shall be taken by a simple majority vote of the members of the Committee and shall not be disputed.
15. The Committee shall work until the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe elects the candidate for the position of ECHR Judge from the Republic of Moldova.

III. Conditions for entry in the competition

16. The competition is open to persons who meet the conditions established by the ECHR, the corresponding resolutions and recommendations of the Parliamentary Assembly and the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe and, after the announcement of the competition, have applied to participate within the deadline.

17. Persons who meet the following requirements may apply for the position of judge at the ECHR:
- are citizens of the Republic of Moldova, have the highest moral reputation and meet the professional conditions required for the exercise of high judicial functions or who are lawyers with recognized competence;
 - have knowledge in the field of the national legal system, in the field of public international law and have legal experience as practitioners;
 - know at an advanced level one of the official languages of the Council of Europe – English or French, and have at least a passive knowledge of the other language as well, so that they can contribute effectively to the work of the ECHR;
 - shall be able to exercise at least half of their possible nine-year term of office until the age of 70.
18. The tender dossier must contain:
- the application for registration for the competition, with the indication of an electronic address;
 - curriculum vitae (in Romanian, French/English), according to the model adopted by the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe in Resolution no. 1646 (2009);
 - copy of the identity card;
 - copy of the higher education diplomas in law or their equivalent;
 - letter of motivation.
19. Copies of the documents submitted by candidates shall be sent by e-mail to the secretariat of the Committee. The verification of the conformity of copies with the original documents shall be performed in the day of the interview.

IV. Conduct of the competition

20. The competition for the position of judge at the ECHR consists of:
- the pre-selection of the candidates regarding the meeting of the established conditions for participation in the competition based on the submitted dossiers;
 - the interview held before the Committee.
21. The Committee shall be convened by its chairman.
22. The announcement of the national competition for the selection of candidates for the position of judge at the ECHR shall be published on the official website of the Ministry of Justice.
23. The complete dossier for registration for the competition must reach the Ministry of Justice by 12 January 2021. Any incomplete dossier or submitted after the deadline shall not be examined.
24. If there are less than two candidates with a complete and eligible dossier in the pre-selection of candidates for the position of Judge at the ECHR, the Committee shall extend the deadline for the submission of applications by a maximum of 10 days.
25. Within 10 days of the deadline for submission of documents, the Committee shall decide, in closed session, on the basis of the dossiers submitted by the candidates in accordance with the criteria in point 17, whether the candidate shall be invited to the interview. Failure to meet the eligibility conditions or submission of an incomplete dossier or a dossier submitted after the deadline expires is the reason for non-admission to the interview. Candidates not admitted to the interview shall be informed by e-mail of the reason for non-admission.
26. The list of candidates admitted to the interview shall be published on the official website of the Ministry of Justice immediately after the Committee has taken its decision. At the same time, the date, place and time of the interview are announced. Candidates admitted to the interview shall be contacted individually by e-mail.
27. Candidates have the right to request and obtain from the Committee information on the manner and outcome of the evaluation of their application on the basis of the dossier submitted.
28. The interview shall be conducted in order to assess the professional skills required for a judge at the ECHR and the personal qualities of the candidate.

29. The interview shall be recorded in audio/video format. The recording of the interviews shall be posted on the website of the Ministry of Justice no later than 24 hours after the end of the last interview.

30. The list of questions for the interview shall be drawn up by the members of the Committee immediately before the interview, in closed session. During the interview, the Committee shall provide each candidate with a reasonable and equivalent time to answer the questions. The questions asked by the Committee shall be at the same level of complexity for each candidate. Members of the Committee may ask further clarification questions. It will be ensured that no candidate hears the questions addressed to his predecessors.

31. Each member of the Committee shall evaluate each candidate on the basis of the following criteria:

- the relevance of the previous experience of the candidate for the position of judge at the ECHR – maximum 15 points;
- knowledge of the ECHR system – maximum 15 points;
- knowledge of the system of public international law and of the Council of Europe – maximum 15 points;
- depth of legal analysis – maximum 10 points;
- clarity and firmness of verbal expression – maximum 10 points;
- proactivity in promoting and defending human rights – maximum 10 points;
- professional reputation – maximum 10 points;
- motivation and personal values of the candidate – maximum 10 points;
- language competence – maximum 10 points.

32. After hearing each candidate, each member of the Committee shall send the completed evaluation form to the Secretariat of the Committee. Before finalizing the assessment form, the members of the Committee shall take into account the opinion of the specialists referred to in point 9 as regards the candidate's language skills.

33. The score obtained by the candidate is the average of the total score given by each member of the Committee who assessed him. The score of each member of the Committee given to each candidate for each criterion referred to in point 31, as well as the total average score obtained by each candidate shall be published on the website of the Ministry of Justice once the results of the competition have been announced.

34. The Committee submits to the Government the first three candidates who have obtained the highest score in the competition. Should there be a tie score between several candidates, priority shall be given, where appropriate, to the candidate of the gender underrepresented in the list of candidates, or to the candidate who obtained the highest average score according to the criteria referred to in point 31 subpoint. 2).

35. The conduct of the competition and the Committee's decision on the list of the three candidates shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting, which shall be signed by the members present. The decision of the Committee on the approval of the list of the three candidates for the position of judge at the ECHR shall be posted on the website of the Ministry of Justice on the day of its adoption.

36. The decision shall be forwarded to the Government for approval within three days of its adoption. Within a maximum of two weeks, the Government shall approve the list of the three candidates or return it to the Committee. The Government shall return the list to the Committee if at least one of the candidates does clearly not comply with the requirements referred to in point 17.

37. After approval, the Government shall submit the list for consultation to the Expert Advisory Panel on Candidates for Election as Judges to the ECHR. At the request of the above-mentioned Panel, audio and video recordings from the interview stage shall be presented additionally. Following the opinion of the said Panel, the Government shall submit the list to the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe for interviews with candidates in the Council of Europe Parliamentary Assembly Committee on the election of judges to the ECHR and the election of the final candidate for ECHR in the plenary session of the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe.
