Legal and human rights aspects of the Russian Federation's aggression against Ukraine

Amendment¹ No. 2

Ms Lesia VASYLENKO, Ukraine, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe

In the draft resolution, after paragraph 4, insert the following paragraph:

"The Assembly reiterates its call to impose, harshen and enforce sanctions on the Russian Federation to bring it into compliance with the international legal obligations it so flagrantly violated, including: minimising the import of all products and commodities from the Russian Federation or any activities by their nationals to promote such exports; minimising the sale of all products and commodities to the Russian Federation, except for humanitarian need; reducing the level of diplomatic and consular staff in the Russian Federation; preventing the participation of persons and teams representing the Russian Federation in sporting events hosted on member States' territory; and suspending any scientific, technical and cultural cooperation. These sanctions should be enforced until the territorial integrity of Ukraine within its internationally recognised border is fully restored, due compensation is paid and all perpetrators of international crimes are held accountable."

Explanatory note

To put an end to human rights violations and atrocities committed by the Russian Federation, the Council of Europe must increase its pressure on Russia. The wording of this amendment corresponds to the sanctions imposed on Yugoslavia.
