Globalisation in times of crises and war: the role of the OECD since the Russian Federation's aggression against Ukraine

Amendment¹ No. 4

tabled by the Committee on Social Affairs, Health and Sustainable Development

In the draft resolution, after paragraph 12, insert the following paragraph:

"In this context, the enlarged Assembly stresses the need for States and enterprises to recommit towards the achievement of the SDGs. It welcomes the 2023 edition of the OECD Guidelines for multinational enterprises on responsible business conduct, in particular as regards enhanced environmental and social responsibility and due diligence in gathering and using personal data. The enlarged Assembly commends the OECD for its work in this area and encourages it to further cooperate with relevant actors in order to strengthen business compliance with the appropriate national norms and international standards."
