1. List and curricula vitae of candidates submitted by the Government of Austria¹

Letter from Ms Aloisia Wörgetter, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, Permanent Representative of Austria to the Council of Europe, to Ms Chatzivassiliou-Tsovilis, Secretary General of the Parliamentary Assembly, dated 7 May 2024

In your communication of 26 April 2024, you informed that after the resignation of one of the candidates initially submitted by Austria for the election as national judge to the European Court of Human Rights the election procedure was suspended until the list were duly completed. It is my honour to submit a revised list of candidates nominated by the Federal Government for the election as judge to the European Court of Human Rights in respect of Austria. These candidates are (in alphabetical order):

- Prof. Dr. András Jakab
- Prof. Dr. Ursula Kriebaum
- Dr. Brigitte Ohms

[...] This list of candidates together with the addendum to the report of the national Selection Committee was approved by the Austrian Federal Government on 24 April 2024. Detailed information on the national selection procedure is provided [...].

2. Information on national selection procedure for the position of a judge of the European Court of Human Rights

2.1. Addendum to the Report of the Selection Commission for the preparation of a list of three candidates for the replacement of a judge at the European Court of Human Rights

1. As an addendum to the Report of the Selection Commission for the preparation of a list of three candidates for the replacement of a judge at the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR) of 12 December 2023 (see Annex), the following is noted:

2. The Federal Ministry for European and International Affairs (BMEIA) was informed on 9 April 2024 that Priv.-Doz. Dr Gregor Heißl, E.MA., withdrew his application as one of the three candidates on the list for election as judge at the ECtHR compiled unanimously by the Selection Commission and submitted without changes to the Parliamentary Assembly (PA) of the Council of Europe (CoE) in accordance with the decision of the Federal Government of 20 December 2023 (see Item 21 of Resolution Minutes No. 82).

3. Since the list of three candidates submitted for the election in the PA of the CoE needs to be complete, the selection procedure of the PA was suspended. Austria is to submit a new list of three candidates to the PA to be examined previously by the Advisory Panel of Experts of the CoE.

4. The Selection Commission set up in accordance with the decision of the Federal Government of 13 September 2023 (see Item 12 of Resolution Minutes No. 69) was reconvened on 22 April 2024 to create a new list of three candidates.

5. After re-examination of all written application documents, of the oral hearing of 24 November 2023 and of the subsequent evaluation of the applications of all seven candidates (for details of the selection procedure, see Annex), the Selection Commission unanimously (with one abstention) came to the conclusion that – taking into account the withdrawal of the aforementioned application and the selection criteria – the following three candidates are best qualified for the office of judge at the ECtHR and therefore should be included in the new list to be submitted (in alphabetical order):

- Univ.-Prof. Dr. András Jakab
- Univ.-Prof. Dr. Ursula Kriebaum
- MR Dr. Brigitte Ohms

1. The curriculum vitae are presented and published as submitted by the Government of Austria.

2.2. Report of the Selection Commission for the preparation of a list of three candidates for the replacement of a judge at the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR)

2.2.1. Background

6. The term of office of the incumbent Austrian judge at the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR), Univ.-Prof. Dr. Gabriele Kucsko-Stadlmayer, ends on 31 October 2024. In accordance with Article 22 of the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), the judges are elected by the Parliamentary Assembly (PA) of the Council of Europe (CoE) by a majority of votes from a list of three candidates proposed by the respective Contracting State. In a letter dated 1 February 2023, the Secretary General of the PA invited the Republic of Austria to submit a list of three Austrian candidates to the General Secretariat of the PA by 13 May 2024.

7. Before the election at the PA, Austria must submit its list of three candidates, including all necessary documents, to the Advisory Panel of Experts on Candidates for Election as Judge to the European Court of Human Rights (Panel of Experts) for examination by 13 February 2024 at the latest. The documents required include – in addition to detailed CVs of the candidates – a comprehensive description of the oral hearing and the national selection procedure so that the Panel of Experts may fully assess the national list of three candidates.

8. The Panel of Experts has been established by the Committee of Ministers of the CoE. Its seven members are composed of representatives of the highest courts of the Contracting States, former judges of international courts, including the ECtHR, and other jurists of the highest competence. The task of the Panel of Experts is to support the Contracting States in the procedure for drawing up their list of three candidates so that the candidates fulfil the requirements for the office set out in Article 21 ECHR in particular.

9. The Committee of Ministers of the CoE itself has set out key criteria of “fairness and transparency” for the preparation of the list of three candidates, which the national procedure must fulfil. Important criteria listed are the type of qualifications, including language skills in at least one of the two official languages of the ECtHR, experience and qualities required of the candidates, including personal qualities such as independence and impartiality, the procedure applied by the national selection panel, sufficient application deadlines, transparent rules for the national selection procedure, the selection criteria applied at national level and the transparency of these criteria.

2.2.2. Selection procedure

2.2.2.1. Call for applications and submissions thereto

10. The call for applications for a vacant position as an Austrian judge at the ECtHR was published on 9 September 2023 on the electronic announcement and information platform (EVI) of the Federal Government (i.e. digital Official Gazette of the Republic of Austria). On the same day, a paid announcement was also published in the print and online editions of the Austrian daily newspapers “Die Presse” and “Der Standard”. In addition, the law faculties of all Austrian universities were requested by letter to publicise the call for applications.

11. The application period of four weeks ended on 7 October 2023. A total of eight applications were received by the BMEIA in electronic form before the application deadline. On 23 November 2023 one application was withdrawn for personal reasons. The Selection Commission therefore examined seven applications in the selection procedure.

2.2.2.2. Selection Commission

12. In its decision of 13 September 2023 (see Item 12 of Resolution Minutes No. 69), the Federal Government reaffirmed its intention to carry out a fair and transparent national selection procedure that meets all the requirements of the ECHR and the institutions of the CoE. To this end, the Federal Government has entrusted a Selection Commission with the task of organising the procedure for drawing up a list of three candidates to replace a judge at the ECtHR. The Federal Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the Federal Minister for European and International Affairs and the Federal Minister of Justice appointed one member of the Selection Commission each. The persons selected were highly qualified lawyers capable of ensuring that the candidates fulfil the requirements of Article 21 ECHR.

13. All decisions of the Selection Commission were to be unanimous, abstentions permitted. The Commission's tasks included: the written evaluation of all applications received by the deadline; the organisation of a hearing and the timely preparation of a list of three candidates for the Federal Government. [...]

14. The following persons were appointed as members of the Selection Commission (in alphabetical order):

- Dr. Konrad Bühler, Ambassador, Head of the International Law Office at the Federal Minister for European and International Affairs
- Prof. Dr. Daniel Ennöckl, LL.M., University of Natural Resources and Life Sciences, Vienna
- Dr. Albert Posch, LL.M., Head of the Constitutional Service at the Federal Chancellery
- Dr. Ingrid Siess-Scherz, Member of the Constitutional Court

15. The Selection Commission met on 20, 21 and 24 November 2023 for consultations and to conduct the oral hearing. At the constituent meeting of the Selection Commission on 20 November 2023, Amb. Dr. Konrad Bühler was appointed chairperson. The Commission also established that there were no important reasons beyond collegial contacts that could cast doubt on the impartiality of the Commission members.

16. At the meeting on 20 November 2023, the Selection Commission also discussed the criteria for the national selection procedure and determined that, in addition to the requirements of Article 21 ECHR (para. 1: high moral character; requirements for the exercise of high judicial office or jurisconsults of recognised competence; para. 2: age less than 65 years on the cut-off date; para. 3: judicial office in their individual capacity; para. 4: no incompatibilities; independence and impartiality), the selection criteria of the Advisory Panel of Experts of the CoE should be the basis for the Selection Commission's assessment (see "A short guide on the Panel's role and the minimum qualifications required of a candidate", Doc. SG-AS (2023) 01rev01 (17 January 2023), see <https://assembly.coe.int/LifeRay/CDH/Pdf/GuideRoleQualification-EN.pdf>). These criteria include relevant professional experience (judicial and/or other, by level, type and duration), language skills in at least one of the two official languages of the ECtHR, motivation, knowledge and experience about the CoE and the ECtHR system, clarity and precision of thought and expression, as well as judgement and other specific skills. The criteria were brought to the attention of the candidates.

17. The Selection Commission also discussed the objective of strengthening gender equality: According to the provisions of the CoE, the list of three candidates submitted by the Contracting States must include in principle at least one man and one woman. However, due to the existing under-representation of women at the ECtHR (currently 35%), it is possible to deviate from this, and the list of three submitted by Austria may also include three women. In this sense, the Selection Commission also took into account the general requirement to promote women, according to which female applicants who are equally qualified for the respective function to the best qualified male competitor are to be given priority.

18. At the meeting on 21 November 2023, the Selection Commission examined all written application documents received, including the formal requirements, and carried out a preliminary assessment of the applications. Furthermore, the modalities and conduct of the oral interview following a standardised format were discussed as well as the selection of standardised questions for all candidates was determined. It was specified that at least one question would be asked in English and one in French, which must be answered in one of the two foreign languages.

2.2.2.3. Oral Hearing

19. On 24 November 2023, the Selection Commission held an oral interview with the seven candidates on the premises of the Federal Chancellery / Constitutional Service with the aim of gaining a personal impression of the candidates and their fulfilment of the criteria for the ECtHR position. The interview with each candidate lasted around 25 minutes. At the beginning, all candidates were given the opportunity of an introductory statement of 5 minutes to present themselves, their application and their motivation.

20. This was followed by two rounds of questions. The questionnaire in the first round of questions related to the candidates' personality, qualifications and motivation; in the second round of questions, specialised issues on legal topics were examined. In order to objectify and compare the respective answers, the first questions were standardised, complemented on a case-by-case basis by questions relating to the respective person and their career or qualifications.

21. Questions were also asked in English and French to assess language skills. Candidates were free to answer these questions in one of these two foreign languages. Passive comprehension was sufficient for the questions in the other foreign language.

2.2.3. Evaluation by the Selection Commission (list of three candidates)

22. After examining the application documents and conducting the oral hearing, the Selection Commission met on 24 November 2023 to evaluate the applications of all candidates.

23. The Selection Commission unanimously came to the conclusion that in light of the selection criteria the following three candidates are most suitable and best qualified for the office of judge at the ECtHR and should therefore be included in the list of three to be forwarded to the CoE Committee of Experts (in alphabetical order):

- Dr. Gregor Heißl, E.MA
- Prof. Dr. Ursula Kriebaum
- Dr. Brigitte Ohms

IV. Activities and experience in the field of human rights

I have taught numerous university courses with a human rights focus. As a research fellow at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law, I was the coach of the Heidelberg University team at the Concours Européen des Droits de l'Homme René Cassin (an ECHR Moot Court in French). During my time as a law lecturer in England, I taught, among other things, public law. As is well known, the ECHR has been a central part of the British legal system since the Human Rights Act 1998 came into force, and accordingly my public law classes were characterised by a thorough examination of the ECtHR case law. In my role as a university professor in Hungary, I taught, among other things, public international law in English. Once again, the focus was on the ECHR and the ECtHR case law. Furthermore, as a university professor for constitutional and administrative law at the University of Salzburg, I teach Austrian public law, and accordingly also the ECHR, which has constitutional rank in Austria, and the relevant ECtHR case law.

Many of my publications deal with human rights issues. These include doctrinal questions of applicability (most recently, e.g. "Zwei Wege zur Vollendung der Europäischen Grundrechteunion: Änderung oder Neuinterpretation von Artikel 51 der EU-Grundrechtecharta" Europäische Grundrechte-Zeitschrift 2023/9. pp. 188-199; "Two Ways of Completing the European Fundamental Rights Union: Amendment to vs. Reinterpretation of Article 51 of the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights" Cambridge Yearbook of European Legal Studies (2022) pp. 239-261, both co-authored with Lando Kirchmair) or the role of human rights in the erosion of the rule of law and democracy (most recently, e.g. "Constitutional Resilience" in: Rainer Grote, Frauke Lachenmann, Rüdiger Wolfrum (eds.): Max Planck Encyclopedia of Comparative Constitutional Law [MPECCoL], Oxford: Oxford University Press 2022). The role of human rights in constitutional argumentation has taken on central importance as part of my five-year research project as a Schumpeter Fellow at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law (Principal Investigator, "Constitutional Reasoning in Europe. A Linguistic Turn in Comparative Constitutional Law", September 1, 2011–August 31, 2016, Volkswagen Foundation, 499,300 euros). I also worked several times as a human rights expert in various international projects measuring the rule of law and democracy (World Justice Project Rule of Law Index, V-Dem Project). Finally, I would like to mention that I am currently working on a manuscript on the alternatives to the proportionality analysis in fundamental rights adjudication.

V. Public activities

None.

VI. Other activities

I have organised numerous conferences and lecture series: in Santiago (Chile), Seoul, Budapest, Berlin, Belo Horizonte (Brazil), Frankfurt am Main, Madrid and Beijing. I have also given over one hundred and fifty conference presentations, lectures and invited commentaries in English, German, Hungarian and Spanish: in Santiago (Chile), Marburg, Örebro, Padua, Vienna, Starnberg, Zlatibor, Pisa, Madrid, Beijing, Budapest, Oñati, Barcelona, Oviedo, Zaragoza, Szeged, Heidelberg, Mexico City, Belgrade, Milano, Cluj, Ithaca (US), Luxembourg, Maastricht, Siena, Roma, Hanover, Belo Horizonte, Berlin, Freiburg, Tallinn, Düsseldorf, Miskolc, Brussels, Debrecen, Münster, Istanbul, Schlögen, Lisbon, Stockholm and Málaga.

VII. Publications and other works

My total publication output is 334 publications (7 monographs, 18 edited volumes, 3 law journal special issue guest editorships, 96 journal articles) in English, German, Hungarian, Spanish, French, Croatian, Slovenian, Czech and Lithuanian.
