Protecting the human rights and improving the lives of sex workers and victims of sexual exploitation

Amendment¹ No. 6

In the draft resolution, replace paragraph 6 with the following paragraph:

"The Assembly recalls that, in its preamble, the United Nations Convention for the Suppression of the Traffic in Persons and of the Exploitation of the Prostitution of Others proclaims that prostitution and the evil that accompanies it, namely trafficking in human beings for the purpose of prostitution, are incompatible with the dignity and worth of the human person. The Assembly recognises the close link between prostitution and trafficking in human beings for sexual exploitation, the latter being facilitated by information and communication technologies, including the internet and social media. The Assembly stresses that co-operation with people in prostitution and relevant civil society organisations, particularly those providing assistance to people in prostitution, should be part of the implementation of anti-trafficking policies, as they are best placed to identify cases where people in prostitution are victims of trafficking."
