Multiperspectivity in remembrance and history education for democratic citizenship

Amendment¹ No. 1

Ms Yevheniia KRAVCHUK, Ukraine, Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe

In the draft resolution, after paragraph 1, insert the following paragraph:

"At a time when historical narratives are increasingly distorted to justify aggression - most notably in the context of the ongoing war waged by the Russian Federation against Ukraine - the role of critical, evidence-based history education in countering disinformation has become vital. The Assembly emphasises the perils of politicising history and highlights the power of history education to build resilience against the misuse of narratives justifying aggression, human rights abuses, and territorial claims."
