COUNCIL OF EUROPE
CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

Doc. 377
07 July 1955

Conditions under which horses are transported from one member country to another

Motion for an Order
tabled by Mr Charles FLETCHER-COOKE and other members of the Assembly

The Assembly

Considering that the care of, and kindness to, animals is one of the marks of European civilisation,

Instructs the Committee on Legal and Administrative Questions to study and report on the laws and regulations in the various member countries relating to the conditions under which horses are transported between one member country and another.
