

Recommendation 40 (1952)<sup>1</sup>

Creation of a European cultural Fund for Exiles

Parliamentary Assembly

The Assembly,

Having regard to its Recommendation 17 \(1951\), relating to the creation of a European Fund for Exiles ;

Having noted with regret that the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees felt unable to participate, together with the Council of Europe, in the administration of the European Cultural Fund for Exiles ;

Considering it most important that its proposals to preserve among the exiles now in Western Europe their cultural inheritance and national civilisations should, nevertheless, be implemented without delay ; and

Reaffirming that, in its view, a practical method of preserving the cultural heritage of these peoples is through the establishment of a European Cultural Fund for Exiles ;

Recommends to the Committee of Ministers :

- a. that there should be created a European Cultural Fund for Exiles to be used and administered in accordance with the aims and policies set forth in the appended Schedule ;
- b. that if any Member wishes to abstain from participating in it, the possibility should be envisaged of setting up the Fund as a result of a partial agreement.

2. To give practical encouragement, under adequate safeguards, to cultural, scientific and research institutions founded by national groups of exiles.
