

Recommendation 144 (1957)¹

Assistance to, and the resettlement of, Hungarian refugees

Parliamentary Assembly

The Standing Committee,

Having seen Recommendations 106 (1956) and 114 (1957), referring to Hungarian refugees,

Recommends that the Committee of Ministers should :

1. Strongly support the second joint appeal made by the Secretary-General of the United Nations and the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees for further contributions, and urge Governments, Members of the Council of Europe, generously to respond to this appeal;
2. Invite Member Governments :
 - a. to take into consideration, within the framework of the assistance they are ready to give to Hungarian refugees, the problem of those refugees who are in Yugoslavia;
 - b. to make the necessary contacts with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees and with the Intergovernmental Committee for European Migration in order to facilitate the permanent resettlement of all of the Hungarian refugees who still are in Austria, in Yugoslavia and in other European countries.

1. see Docs. 644 and Doc. 645, Reports of the Committee on Population and Refugees). This Recommendation was adopted by the Standing Committee, acting on behalf of the Assembly, at its meeting on 4th May 1957
