Young people's access to fundamental rights

A. Draft Recommendation	2

A. Draft Recommendation

1. The Parliamentary Assembly is firmly convinced that unhindered access of young people to fundamental rights is an essential element in building a culture of human rights, democracy and the rule of law, and is concerned that youth policies in the Council of Europe member States do not sufficiently safeguard these rights.
2. The Assembly therefore reiterates its call for a binding legal framework at European level in order to secure young people's access to fundamental rights.
3. Conscious of the challenge that the preparation of a binding instrument in this field will involve, the Assembly calls on the Committee of Ministers to prepare as a first step a recommendation on "Improving young people's access to fundamental rights", instructing the European Steering Committee for Youth, the Advisory Council on Youth and the Steering Committee for Education Policy and Practice, in co-operation with the European Committee for Social Cohesion, to draft this recommendation. This should bring together and complete the acquis of previous Committee of Ministers' recommendations, also building on the following texts: key proposals put forward by Youth sector representatives at the Conference of Ministers responsible for Youth held in St Petersburg from 24 to 25 September 2012; the text adopted by the Youth Assembly held in Strasbourg from 5 to 7 October 2012; and relevant resolutions and recommendations of the Parliamentary Assembly.

Amendment 2 Tabled by the Committee on Social Affairs, Health and Sustainable Development

In the draft recommendation, paragraph 2, after the words "fundamental rights" insert the following words: ", including socio-economic rights".

Amendment 7 Tabled by Mr Robert SHLEGEL, Mr Anvar MAKHMUTOV, Mr Leonid KALASHNIKOV, Mr Alexander SIDYAKIN, Mr Otari ARSHBA

In the draft recommendation, replace paragraph 3 with the following paragraph:

*"The Assembly calls on the Committee of Ministers to prepare a recommendation on "improving young people's access to fundamental rights", instructing the European Steering Committee for Youth, the Advisory Council on Youth and the Steering Committee for Education Policy and Practice, in co-operation with the European Committee for Social Cohesion, to draft this recommendation. This should bring together and complete the acquis of previous Committee of Ministers' recommendations, also building on the following texts: key proposals put forward by Youth sector representatives at the Conference of Ministers responsible for Youth held in St Petersburg from 24 to 25 September 2012; the text adopted by the Youth Assembly held in Strasbourg from 5 to 7 October 2012; and relevant resolutions and recommendations of the Parliamentary Assembly".*

Amendment 3 Tabled by the Committee on Social Affairs, Health and Sustainable Development

In the draft recommendation, after paragraph 3, insert the following paragraph:

"The Assembly welcomes the launch, in February 2013, of a Council of Europe campaign "Nurturing human rights" with a view to promoting rights and freedoms enshrined in the European Convention on Human Rights (ETS No.5), with an emphasis on young people. It believes that the campaign should be further widened to encompass also the rights enshrined in the European Social Charter (revised)(ETS No.163)."

4. The Assembly also recommends that the Committee of Ministers take action to enhance member States' capacity to evaluate young people's access to rights, prevent violations of these rights, provide adequate follow-up and redress, and consider innovative ways to empower young people in accessing their rights. To this end, the Assembly invites the Committee of Ministers to:
- 4.1. reinforce the cross-sectoral and rights-based approach to youth policy throughout the Organisation, asking different Council of Europe bodies to give careful consideration to young people's rights in the development of standards, programmes and monitoring activities, and to explore measures to improve the access of young people to these rights;
- 4.2. instruct specifically the Steering Committee for Human Rights and its Gender Equality Commission to pay due attention in their work to the situation of young people in each and every Council of Europe member State;
- 4.3. reinforce the programme of international reviews of national youth policies, under the responsibility of the European Steering Committee for Youth, paying particular attention to the establishment of mechanisms ensuring effective access of young people to their rights, and taking corrective action as necessary;
- 4.4. urge the Joint Council on Youth, in co-operation with other sectors of the Council of Europe, to conduct a thorough study concerning young people's access to rights, to identify difficulties and good practice in this area and to prepare a handbook of instruments, programmes and policies on youth rights;
