A. Draft Resolution	2

A. Draft Resolution

1. On 16 March 2022, the Russian Federation was expelled from membership of the Council of Europe, as a result of its war of aggression against Ukraine, which began in 2014 and escalated into a large-scale invasion. In its Opinion 300 (2022) adopted on the previous day, while calling on the Committee of Ministers to request the Russian Federation to immediately withdraw from the Council of Europe, the Parliamentary Assembly added that "the Council of Europe should envisage initiatives to be able to continue to support and engage with human rights defenders, democratic forces, free media and independent civil society in the Russian Federation". Subsequently, in its Resolution 2433 (2022) "Consequences of the Russian Federation's continued aggression against Ukraine: role and response of the Council of Europe", the Assembly resolved "to intensify its engagement with Belarusian and Russian civil society, human rights defenders, independent journalists, academia and democratic forces respecting the values and principles of the Organisation, including the territorial integrity of sovereign member States". Similarly, meeting in Reykjavik in May 2023, Council of Europe Heads of State and Government agreed to "find ways to strengthen co-operation with Russian and Belarusian human rights defenders, democratic forces, free media and independent civil society".
2. On the strength of these texts, and as the outcome of a long-standing process of dialogue and engagement, the Assembly decided to set up a representative delegation of Belarusian democratic forces. As far as Russian democratic forces are concerned, some of them were invited to participate in hearings organised by Assembly committees. Furthermore, an informal platform for dialogue bringing together members of the Assembly holding specific functions and members of Russian democratic forces was set up, to discuss topics of common concern. Amongst them were the role of Russian democratic forces in bringing the Russian Federation's aggression to an end, ways to strengthen sanctions against the Russian regime, ensure that Russians can have access to free and independent media, and ways to counter Russian disinformation, and the situation of Russian democratic forces in exile. The situation of Russian political prisoners was also addressed. Over this period, the Assembly condemned the murder of Alexei Navalny and repeatedly demanded the release of Vladimir Kara-Murza, winner of the 2022 Václav Havel Human Rights Prize, and called for sanctions against the Russian officials involved in his illegal detention.

Amendment 17

Tabled by Ms Mariia MEZENTSEVA-FEDORENKO, Ms Denitsa SACHEVA, Mr Yuriy KAMELCHUK, Ms Andrea EDER-GITSCHTHALER, Mr Mihail MITOV, Mr Gonzalo ROBLES, Ms Regina BASTOS, Mr Marko PAVIĆ, Ms Carmen LEYTE, Ms Cat ECCLES, Ms Leigh INGHAM, Ms Christine PASQUIER-CIULLA, Mr Markus WIECHEL, Mr Arminas LYDEKA, Mr Sigurður Helgi PÁLMASSON, Mr Christophe BRICO, Ms Albana VOKSHI

In the draft resolution, at the end of paragraph 1, insert the following sentences:

"In its Resolutions 2540 (2024) "Alexei Navalny's death and the need to counter Vladimir Putin's totalitarian regime and its war on democracy" and 2588 (2025) "European commitment to a just and lasting peace in Ukraine", the Assembly noted the ongoing forced russification, repression and discrimination of indigenous peoples and minorities in the Russian Federation, in breach of the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination. It concluded that genuine democracy in Russia is impossible without decolonisation, underlined that lasting peace requires the Russian Federation to abandon its imperial ambitions and called for the implementation of UN General Assembly Resolution 1514 (XV) (1960)."

3. The Assembly reiterates its strong condemnation of the systematic repression of Russians opposing the regime and attempts to silence them, inside and outside the Russian Federation. It honours the commitment of those Russian human rights defenders, democratic forces, free media, and independent civil society who oppose the Russian regime and support Ukraine, like the Anti-War Committee and the Free Russia Foundation, sometimes at the cost of their lives and freedom. The Assembly notes that unlike Belarusian democratic forces, Russian democratic forces do not have a single, unified political structure. The Assembly encourages Russian groups and initiatives in exile to join forces with the aim of countering disinformation by the Russian regime, advocating for a democratic change in the Russian Federation, exposing all international crimes committed by Russian actors in the Republic of Moldova, Georgia and Ukraine, and supporting Ukrainians in their struggle against the aggressor State, in a variety of ways.

4. The Assembly recalls that, in 2024, a General Rapporteur on Russian democratic forces was appointed, with the mandate to promote the coherence of the Assembly's action aimed at building dialogue with Russian democratic forces who respect the values and principles of the Council of Europe, including the territorial integrity of sovereign member States. Also as a result of the work of the General Rapporteur, the Assembly believes that time has come for ad hoc and informal initiatives to give way to a more structured engagement with Russian democratic forces. This would help strengthen the capacity of Russian democratic forces to bring about a sustainable democratic change in Russia and help achieve a lasting and just peace in Ukraine, alongside ensuring the responsibility of Russian actors for the international crimes committed, while providing to the Assembly an insight into developments in the Russian Federation and amongst Russian democratic forces.

5. In light of these considerations, the Assembly decides to establish a Platform for Dialogue with Russian Democratic Forces ("the Platform"), as a forum for a two-way engagement between the Assembly and Russian democratic forces to address issues of common concern through exchanges in the context of the Platform, to be chaired by the President of the Assembly or a member of the Assembly delegated by the President. Tabled by Mr Stephen GETHINS, Ms Mariia MEZENTSEVA-FEDORENKO, Mr Markus WIECHEL, Ms Larysa BILOZIR, Mr Oleksii GONCHARENKO, Ms Olena KHOMENKO, Mr Serhii KALCHENKO

In the draft resolution, replace paragraph 3 with the following paragraph:

"The Assembly reiterates its strong condemnation of the systematic repression of Russians opposing the regime and attempts to silence them, inside and outside the Russian Federation. It honours the commitment of those Russian human rights defenders, democratic forces, free media and independent civil society who oppose the totalitarian and neo-imperialistic Russian regime, fight for democracy, human rights and the rule of law and support Ukraine, sometimes at the risk of their lives and freedom, and emphasises that this fight must continue. The Assembly notes that unlike Belarusian democratic forces, Russian democratic forces do not have a single, unified political structure. The Assembly encourages Russian groups and initiatives in exile to join forces with the aim of countering disinformation by the totalitarian and neo-imperialistic Russian regime, advocating for a democratic change in the Russian Federation, exposing all international crimes committed by Russian actors in the Republic of Moldova, Georgia and Ukraine, and supporting Ukrainians in their struggle against the aggressor State, in a variety of ways."

When a Dialogue Platform for the indigenous peoples and national minorities of the Russian Federation is established, this quota will be terminated."
9.	The Assembly refers particularly to its Resolution 2605 (2025) and reiterates that, in violation of international humanitarian law, the Russian Federation continues the colonisation of the occupied territories by encouraging hundreds of thousands of its own citizens to settle there, including through federal programmes. These initiatives form part of the aggressor State's policy aimed at the forcible alteration of the demographic composition of the population, thereby significantly complicating the processes of de-occupation and the restoration of peace. Such actions constitute a violation of the Russian Federation's international obligations and amount to crimes under international law, and should entail appropriate legal consequences.
